

LITTLE DARLING

Musik und Text: Rolf Zuckowski

My little darling say you're mine and be sure that every word you say will open the door to my lonely heart.
Who's queen you will be?
Come on, hurry in, here is the key.

Darling, darling

All the mistakes we made we'll leave out of sight.
The past we'll turn into a future so bright.
Come on, little girl, say won't you agree,
I want you to be my lucky star.

Darling, darling ...

And if they say, that I'll soon say good-bye,
don't you agree in those words
they're a lie, they're a lie.

My little darling say your mine ...
